

The participation of the department students in various other activities is quite satisfactory. Doli Hazarika of outgoing batch won the Book Review Competition organized by the Central Library, North Bank College. In addition to that, the students participated in NSS activities like Campus Cleaning, Zonal Camping. In both departmental and college programmes they participate enthusiastically.

