

English Department's Wall Magazine the Literary Lantern provides platform for the students to cultivate creativity as well as broaden their knowledge about many sensitive issues. It is published twice a year by the students under the supervision of a Department faculty member.

