

The departmental print magazine The Marker was published for the first time in 2016 with the collaborative efforts of students and faculty members. It's first editor was Jitumoni Saikia, 6th Semester student and teacher-in-charge was Dr. Bharadwaj Gogoi. The magazine provides a practice ground for the students to develop their literary expertise.

